

Opposition to the Sale

Opposition to the sale of Rainbow-1 licenses to Echo Star because it would be against what the FCC has ruled for the consumer in the past. This would eliminate a competing provider that has been the best source of High Quality programming! I am a very happy Voom Customer and would be forced to choose from one of the lower quality providers.

Please don't allow this unfair acquisition and resulting elimination of competition.

Tom Watson